

KING'S WAY

you belong here

Job Description

PreK Instructional Support Teacher Aide/General Support Aide

Type: Full-Time (10 months)

Start: 2022-2023 School Year

Pay Type: Hourly Position

Position Overview:

King's Way is searching for a reliable, trustworthy, and innovative Pre-K instructional support teacher aide to join our family. The aide's responsibilities include providing individual support to students of varying abilities, mainly in Pre-K, with a flexible afternoon schedule for support among other areas within the school setting.

Essential Job Functions:

- Promote independence in all aspects of daily life
- Support each child's social, emotional, and intellectual development
- Use a variety of instructional/assessment strategies, as directed by the lead teacher, to meet individual student needs, and ensure the physical, cognitive, social, and educational excellence of all students
- Maintain a safe, and organized classroom environment for the students
- Aide lead teacher in developmentally appropriate lesson planning/daily activities

KING'S WAY

you belong here

- Display a positive, Christ-like relationship with students; promoting self-esteem and self-discipline
- Assist lead teacher in evaluation of students, and creating reports
- Ability to execute the daily routine and lesson plan, as lead teacher, in her absence
- Assist daily in areas of the school, when needed, with a joyful, and flexible heart

Qualifications:

Education and Experience

- High School diploma or GED required
- Previous experience in working with Pre-K children in an institutional setting

Abilities and Skill

- Work well independently, and as part of a team, with students, of various learning abilities, individually and in groups to reinforce concepts learned in class
- Excellent communication skills; with parents, students, staff, etc...
- Practices patience, kindness, and empathy
- Must have a flexible servant's heart and willingness to step in where needed

Interested candidates should submit their resume and at least three references to kwawarriors@gmail.com